

Baseball: Elephants cut Matanzas triumphant streak: 5-2

Última actualización: Martes, 05 Noviembre 2019 17:41

Visto: 21

The Elephants of Cienfuegos defeated the Crocodiles of Matanzas five races by two, on Monday, at the Cinco de Septiembre stadium, and cut the triumphant streak of six games of their adversaries, who nevertheless retained the second place in the standings table. the current stage of the National Baseball Series, taking advantage of the setback suffered by the leader Camagüey, 6 for 1 against Industriales.

Armando Ferrer's boys reduced their offense this time to just seven hits and lost unbeaten after six consecutive successes in the current phase of the tournament. In fact, they missed several opportunities, leaving many men in circulation in the absence of the driving force. Jefferson Delgado, author of a solo home run, was the best man on the offensive.

The right César García (5-3) was credited the triumph with saved game for Miguel Lahera (3). Starter Javier Mirabal (6-5), who was kept too long in the box despite being punished, charged the other way around.

The cienfuegueros hit nine uncollectable and his best man with the wood was Richel López who shot home run.

C H E

Killings - 2 7 0

Cienfuegos– 5 9 0

In other results, Industriales left the pothole after having lost the particular subset of three games per sweep to Matanzas and nailed a flag to the Camaguey bull on their own premises of the Cándido González stadium, where Bryan Chi (6-3) made a good job with the blue uniform.

Las Tunas took advantage of the reverse of Camaguey and ascended to the second place embraced with Matanzas, after beating 11-7 to the Wasps of Santiago de Cuba successfully for Wilson Paredes (2-4) and reverse of left-handed Ulfrido García (5-5). José Ángel García added his ninth unit per game saved, in a match where the Danel Castro and Rafael Viñales from Las Tunas took the ball out of the stadium, as did Santiago Guzmán.

Positions table

Equipos	JG	JP	AVE	DIF
1. CMG	33	19	.635	–

Baseball: Elephants cut Matanzas triumphant streak: 5-2

Última actualización: Martes, 05 Noviembre 2019 17:41

Visto: 21

2. MTZ	32	20	.616	1
3. LTU	32	20	.616	1
4. SCU	31	21	.597	2
5. CFG	31	21	.597	2
6. IND	28	24	.539	5

United States qualifies for the Premier 12 Final

In a duel of battles, the baseball team of the United States surpassed on Monday to the Dominican Republic 10 races by 8 in Group A, and qualified for the next round of the Premier Tournament, which grants two places for the 2020 Olympiad, with which eliminated the people from the competition.

The winners highlighted the offensive Bohm (single, double and homer, with three drives and two scored) and Kratz (single, double and homer, with a pair of trailers and the same number of scores).

The credit of the victory corresponded to reliever Wyatt Mills (two innings without allowing runs), while Carlos Sano charged with the reverse. Dickson took the point for saved game.

A Latin Press cable cites statements by the American mentor, Scott Brosius, who at a press conference said his team still has the goal of winning in the Premier 12.

"We trust in the arms we have, in all our pitchers. It is a difficult task, much more if we remember that many of these pouts were several days without launching before this tournament, and the pots need to work to catch up,"he explained.

The Americans will focus from now on on the next stage, in which the first two places of groups A, B and C. will participate.

The northerners won the 2000 Sydney Olympic edition with the legendary manager Tom Lasorda, defeating Cuba in the final, a country that had won the title in Barcelona 1992 and Atlanta 1996.

Cuban TV will broadcast this Tuesday game against Canada

As announced, the Tele Rebelde Channel, of Cuban Television, will broadcast this Tuesday from 10 p.m. - Cuba's schedule - the game between Cuba and Canada corresponding to Group C of the Premier Tournament, which will take place at the Goechok Sky Dome, in South Korea.

Undoubtedly, it is a difficult challenge for the Antillean national team, given the integration of its rivals with professional players and the poor performance of the Cuban team in the recent Pan American Games in Lima, Peru.

However, the mentor Borroto relies on the reinforcements that have integrated the set to which gardeners Alfredo Despaigne, Yurisbel Gracial, who are expected to raise the offensive potential, in addition to picher Liván Moinelo, whose effectiveness in closing the matches will be added It is well known.

The calendar for Cuba reserves Wednesday's clashes against Australia, at the same time of 10 at night in our country, and Korea, on Friday at 5 in the morning.

Obtaining the Olympic ticket in the Premier will be an extremely difficult task for the Cuban national team, given the exhibition already made by other potential rivals, endowed with figures of extensive competitive experience in professional baseball. Other opportunities to obtain the pass will be the participation in the pre-Olympic competitions of America, scheduled for March 2020 in the USA, or the World Cup in April of that year, set for Taipei of China, to which the Dominican Republic also needs to attend, eliminated from the Premier in the first phase. (TVY) (11/05/19).

Taken from <http://www.tvyumuri.icrt.cu/>

Baseball: Elephants cut Matanzas triumphant streak: 5-2

Última actualización: Martes, 05 Noviembre 2019 17:41

Visto: 21
